STONEWALL FARM - c. 1838 - 2400 Frederick Road, Catonsville-Oella vicinity. Large Federal house was later improved or altered with a mansard roof, double-deck porches, polychrome slate, and stucco coating over the basic frame house. Probably built by Benjamin P. Moore about 1839-46. Later owned by Thomas Lansdale and then by Thomas C. Miller, both investors in nearby Granite Factory. Lansdale called the estate "Enfield" but Mrs. Isabella T. Skinner renamed it "Stonewall Farm" about 1875. Undergoing restoration in 1986. Original mantels, over mantels and mirrors survived.
